Terms and Definitions

- The All of Us Research Program is a national longitudinal research initiative that aims to engage one million or more participants living in the United States. Participants contribute health data and specimens (blood, urine, saliva) to a repository that includes health, behavioral, genomic, and other data. The All of Us Research Program is a key component of the Precision Medicine Initiative, which aspires to leverage advances in genomics and health information technology to accelerate biomedical discoveries.
- There are three data access tiers within the All of Us Research Program.
 - Public Tier: The resource tier containing only summary statistics and aggregate information that poses negligible risks to the privacy of research participants. The Public Tier can be accessed by anyone; it does not require logging into the All of Us Researcher Workbench.
 - Registered Tier: The resource tier that contains data elements that have a lower risk of unapproved re-identification, and thus carries minimal risk to the privacy of research participants. Registered Tier data can only be accessed by users who log into the All of Us Researcher Workbench. All access will be logged and may be audited for compliance.
 - Controlled Tier: The resource tier that contains data elements that may not, in their own right, readily identify individual participants but that may increase the risk of unapproved re-identification when combined with other data elements. Such data may include participant-level genomic data, clinical notes, and narrative data. Users must be appropriately accredited and granted approval to access the Controlled Tier, and all access will be logged and may be audited for compliance.
- An Authorized Data User is a person who is authorized to access and/or work with Registered or Controlled Tier data from the All of Us Research Program. Each Authorized Data User must verify their identity, complete the All of Us Responsible Conduct of Research Training, attest to this agreement, and complete all other aspects of the Authorized Data User onboarding process.

Authorized Data Users may also need to be covered by an institutional Data Use and Registration Agreement (DURA).

- The Resource Access Board (RAB) is the board that operationalizes decisions regarding data access. Its responsibilities include overseeing registration procedures for new Authorized Data Users, conducting Workspace audits, responding to Authorized Data User inquiries around potentially stigmatizing research, and reviewing potential violations of the Data User Code of Conduct.
- The All of Us Researcher Workbench is the cloud-based research platform that the All of Us Research Program has created where individuals can apply for access to the data and, once approved as Authorized Data Users, create project-specific Workspaces in which to access and analyze the data.
- A Workspace is a user-created analytical sandbox within the All of Us Researcher Workbench platform where users can virtually pull in subsets of data from the All of Us Research Program database and perform analyses. Authorized Data Users must create a new Workspace for each research project using All of Us data and provide a plain language description of the research project, as well as other project information, that will be published publicly in the All of Us Research Projects Directory.
- Personal Identifying Information (PII) is information that can be used to distinguish or trace the identity of an individual (e.g., name, Social Security number, biometric records, etc.), either alone or when combined with other personal or identifying information that is linked or linkable to a specific individual (2 CFR § 200.1).
- Protected Health Information (PHI) is individually identifiable health information that is transmitted by electronic media, maintained in electronic media, or transmitted or maintained in any other form or medium (45 CFR § 160.103).
- Identifiable Private Information (IPI) is private information for which the identity of the subject is or may readily be ascertained by the investigator or associated with the information (45 CFR § 46.102).
- Marketing is communication about a product or service that encourages recipients of the communication to purchase or use the product or service (45 CFR §164.501).
