

Broad Consent Form – Example Language

Title of Study: Understanding Patient Experiences with Chronic Illness

Purpose of Consent:

You are being asked to provide broad consent for the use of your survey responses and interview data in future research studies. This means your information may be used in other studies beyond the one you are currently participating in.

What Will Be Collected:

We will collect your responses to surveys and interviews, which may include personal experiences, health information, and demographic details. Some of this information may be identifiable.

Future Use of Your Data:

Your data may be stored and used in future research related to health, behavior, or social issues. These future studies may be conducted by our research team or by other approved researchers.

Privacy and Confidentiality:

Your data will be stored securely. Identifiers (such as your name or contact information) will be removed or coded to protect your privacy. Only approved researchers will have access to your data, and they must agree to protect your confidentiality.

Voluntary Participation and Withdrawal:

Your participation is voluntary. You may choose not to provide broad consent. If you do provide consent, you may withdraw it at any time by contacting the research team. Data already used in research may not be retrievable.

No Additional Contact or Compensation:

You will not be contacted for each future study using your data, and you will not receive additional compensation for future use.

Contact Information:

If you have questions about this consent or future use of your data, please contact [Researcher Name] at [Contact Info].

Consent Statement:

- I agree to allow my survey and interview data to be stored and used for future research as described above.
- I do not agree to the future use of my data.
