

Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) Training

NIH-Compliant | Interactive | Required for Trainees

Are you supported by an NIH training, fellowship, or career award? You must complete Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) training.

WEDNESDAYS

9/9, 9/16,
9/23, 10/7
4-6 PM

9245 SKY
PARK
COURT,
SUITE 230,
SAN DIEGO,
92123

PROGRAM DETAILS

Dr. Stanley Maloy is a recognized leader in scientific ethics and co-author of a widely used textbook on scientific integrity and responsible conduct of research.

WHY ATTEND?

Required for NIH-funded trainees | Practical skills via case discussions | Engage with faculty and peers | Enhance research integrity

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Research ethics and misconduct
- Data management and integrity
- Authorship and publication practices
- Peer review and collaboration
- Conflicts of interest
- Mentor/mentee responsibilities
- Scientific rigor and reproducibility

REQUIREMENTS

- Attend all four, 2-hour sessions
- Required readings (will be provided)
- Participate in the interactive, in-person, discussions
- Certificate provided upon completion

Dr. Stanley Maloy

[Website
& Bio](#)

Register Here

